

Kalimotxo

Apparently originating in the Basque Country, kalimotxo is popular with the younger crowd all across the country. It's also spelled "calimocho", but the Basque name seems more appropriate. It's simple, easy to make, cheap as they come and frankly quite tasty. I tried my first one today (7 July 2023) and was pleasantly surprised.

Ingredients

Dry red wine (an inexpensive one)

Coca Cola (the original)

Slice of lemon

Preparation

In a pint glass with lots of ice.

Fill half way with red wine

Pour in the Coke

Garnish with a slice of lemon

Enjoy!

Note:

1. It's a great summer quaffer and a good way to use up leftover red wine.
